

To report suspected human trafficking, call the U.S.
Department of Homeland Security (DHS) tip line:

1-866-347-2423

HUMAN TRAFFICKING IS HAPPENING NOW

HUMAN TRAFFICKING IS HAPPENING NOW IN COMMUNITIES ACROSS THE COUNTRY.

Recognize the signs. The person may be:

- Forced/coerced to perform commercial sex acts or is under the age of 18 and engaged in commercial sex
- Unable to leave their job or situation without severe consequences
- Forced to provide services to work off a debt
- Controlled, watched, coached, or threatened by someone
- Not in possession or control of their own money or identification
- Inappropriately dressed, malnourished, disengaged, or tired

While no single indicator is proof of human trafficking, these are a few that should alert you to a potential trafficking situation.

To report suspected human trafficking,
call the DHS Tip Line:

1-866-347-2423

If you are a victim and need help, call the National Human Trafficking Hotline:

1-888-373-7888

For more information, visit dhs.gov/bluecampaign